In Diagonal Avenue, between Aribau and Via Augusta, we present this stately apartment in a regal estate.

Just entering we fall in love with its large entrance hall, its high ceilings with moldings, and the warmth offered throughout the house. The large windows with original arch of the time, parquet floors in the day area and in the rooms, and all rooms of generous size. It is distributed in two very spacious double bedrooms en suite, totally exterior. Both with fitted closets. Two exterior bathrooms. The master suite has access to one of the balconies, the bathroom has a shower and bathtub, and access to another balcony. The jewel in the crown is the living-dining room area, with its large windows that illuminate all this space with very pleasant natural light. The fireplace provides some warmth to the atmosphere. The kitchen is independent from the living-dining room and is equipped with high-end appliances. A large window overlooking the balcony allows natural light all day. Next to the kitchen we have the water area and storage area. The whole house is air-conditioned with heating and air conditioning ducts. The walls are soundproofed so that isolate the noise between one room and another. The building has elevator and freight elevator, storage room...
