Located in one of Barcelona's most exclusive neighborhoods, Sant Gervasi, we find this stunning 236 m² apartment, recently renovated by the prestigious interior designer Vicente Nebot, using the highest quality materials. Upon entering, a spacious entrance hall leads to a bright and elegant two-area living-dining room, designed for comfort and style. The semi-open kitchen with a central island masterfully combines solid wood and pure marble, creating a unique space. Additionally, it includes a modern office/coffee area, a wine fridge, and a large integrated refrigerator, adding functionality and sophistication. The kitchen is equipped with renowned Gaggenau appliances, ensuring a high-end culinary experience that perfectly complements the kitchen's design. The living-dining room has access to a large terrace with mountain views. A hallway with built-in wardrobes leads to a functional service area, complemented by an elegant guest toilet. The hallway, designed as a personalized study area with custom carpentry, directs us to the night area. This features four double bedrooms, all with exclusive details. The master bedroom, en suite, includes a private office, a walk-in closet, and direct access to a quiet residential patio, ensuring total peace and privacy. The second bedroom has a practical walk-in closet, while the other two bedrooms are equipped with built-in wardrobes and share a...
