In one of the quietest streets in La Bonanova district, surrounded by the best schools in the city and all kinds of public transport, we find this apartment that has all the features to make it your home.

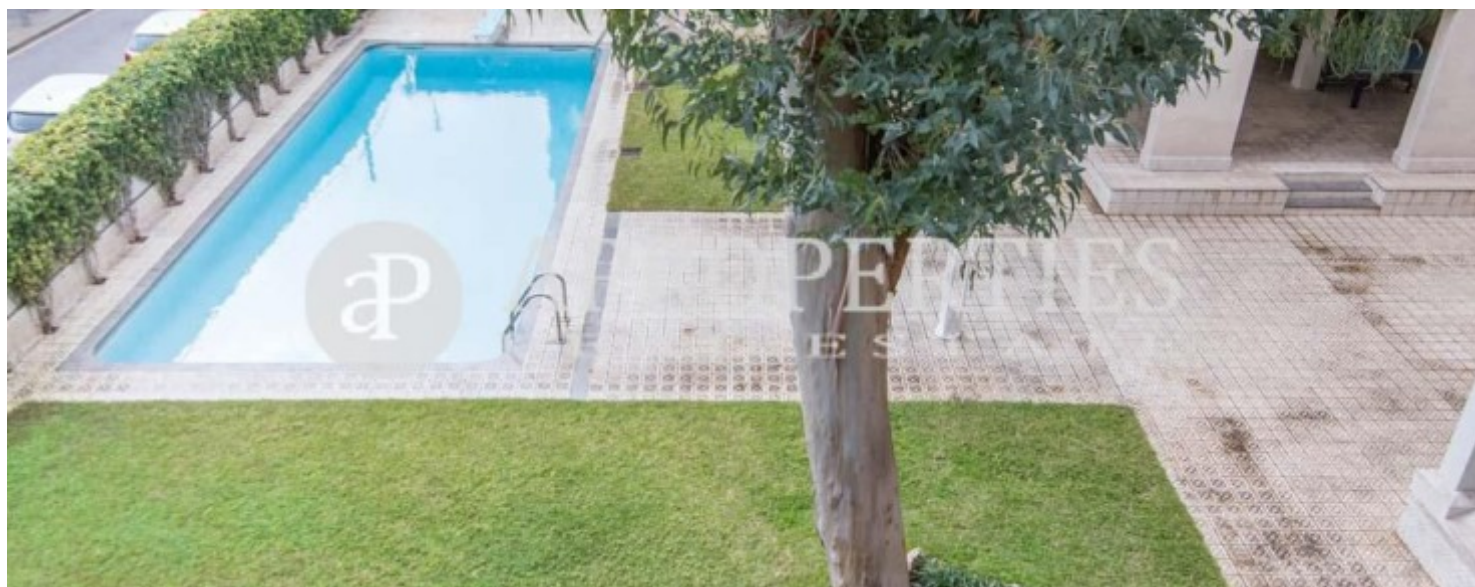

The property has a large communal area with swimming pool, games room, a large and small parking space, a storage room and concierge service. The property, which needs to be refurbished, is approximately 200sqm, is outward facing and has a terrace with views over the communal area. The layout is perfect to find on one side the kitchen and the service room with its bathroom and on the other side the sleeping area composed of three bedrooms and two bathrooms. The large living room with fireplace has large windows with which it enjoys a great luminosity as in the rest of the house. To sum up, it is a very comfortable apartment where you can enjoy its communal area and live in one of the most exclusive neighborhoods of the city.
