Exclusive furnished house in the center of Sarrià.

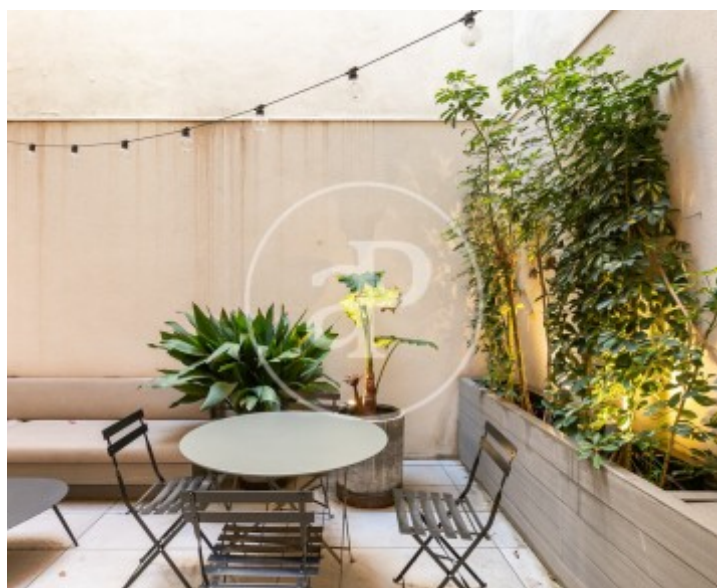

It consists of three floors covering a built area of 230 m², providing a generous and functional space for family living. The property, fully renovated, has been carefully designed and decorated to combine traditional charm with modern comforts. The three bedrooms, located on the second floor, offer spaciousness and brightness, creating an oasis of comfort. On the top floor, there is a cozy open-plan space perfect for a study or extra living room, open to two terraces. On the ground floor, the kitchen and living room clearly open onto the third terrace. This beautiful house also includes private parking, e nsuring residents' comfort and security. In summary, this property in Sarrià offers a perfect balance between historic charm, contemporary comfort, and a privileged location in the heart of the old town. Residential atmosphere: Sarrià has maintained a residential character over the years, making it an attractive place for those seeking a quiet and relaxed lifestyle. The neighborhood features architecture that reflects its history, with cobbled streets and buildings that preserve traditional Catalan elements. It also has several parks and green areas, such as Parc de la...
