In an excellent location, in the most popular area of the city, close to exclusive shops, parks and with very good communications, we find this excellent property completely renovated, very comfortable and cozy. The property has well differentiated the day area of the night area, the day area with a large, bright and sunny living room with designer fireplace and exit to a pleasant terrace very enjoyable, the kitchen with utility room and fully equipped with high-end appliances. The night area consists of three bedrooms all in suite, one of them a master suite with dressing room, we also find a play area that could be converted into a fourth room or office, the property has a parking space on the same property and concierge service.
