In one of the most sought after areas of the city just three minutes walk from the park, we find this excellent semi renovated property, just missing the finishing touches so that the new owner can customize it to your taste and needs. Currently consists of a living room in two rooms and with access to the terrace at living room level, the kitchen with pre-office, with wine cellar and water area, we also find room and bathroom service in this area. The sleeping area is currently composed of two bedrooms en suite, which could easily be converted into three bedrooms, the master suite has a bedroom, dressing room and office or living room. The property has three parking spaces in the same building and concierge service. The Turó Park area is renowned for its park and exclusive restaurants and stores.
