In one of the most exclusive areas of the city, just steps from the park, close to prestigious schools, exquisite restaurants, exclusive shops, and with excellent transport connections, we find this well-preserved property. It was previously used as an office and requires a full renovation to become a splendid and exceptional home. It features ten rooms and three bathrooms, wooden flooring, excellent carpentry, high ceilings, and views of Pau Casals and a spacious, quiet inner courtyard, making it bright and sunny. The building is elegant and has concierge service. There is the possibility of dividing the property into two apartments...
