In a privileged street of Turó Park overlooking the park, on a high floor of a very well preserved building with double orientation, we find this excellent property.

It consists of a living room with large windows, overlooking the park and kitchen integrated to the living room. The night area currently has four bedrooms and two bathrooms, which are distributed as follows: a bedroom, a bathroom, a master bedroom en suite with bathroom, a room that is used as a dressing room, and another large room that is used as an office-salita, all rooms are very bright. The property has concierge service.
