Spectacular detached house with two outdoor porches, garden and pool, located in one of the most privileged areas of Barcelona, next to the neighborhood of Vallcarca, in a property that maintains, carefully, details of the year 1950. This beautiful four winds property consists of 300m2 built and 240m2 of garden, terrace and pool, distributed over 4 floors. Entering the house, we find the hall that gives access to the second floor. On the left hand side we have the very bright living room, with windows, fireplace and access to the terrace. Leaving the hall, in front we have a service bathroom and to the right the kitchen. Spacious, practical and equipped with all the necessary appliances. At the end of the kitchen we have the dining room with beautiful views of the city, thanks to its large window that gives access to the terrace that unifies with the living room and garden. Going up the stairs to the second floor, we find the first double bedroom with two windows and fantastic sea views. Going up a little more, we arrive. On the right we find another double bedroom with three windows, very bright, and on the other side, with views to the mountain, another double bedroom. In front a single room that is currently a dressing room and to the right the bathroom, complete with shower. If we continue up to the third floor, we reach the fifth double bedroom en suite. With windows, also very...
