In one of the most sought-after and attractive streets of Vila de Gràcia, Seneca street, we find this charming duplex in a 2005 estate.

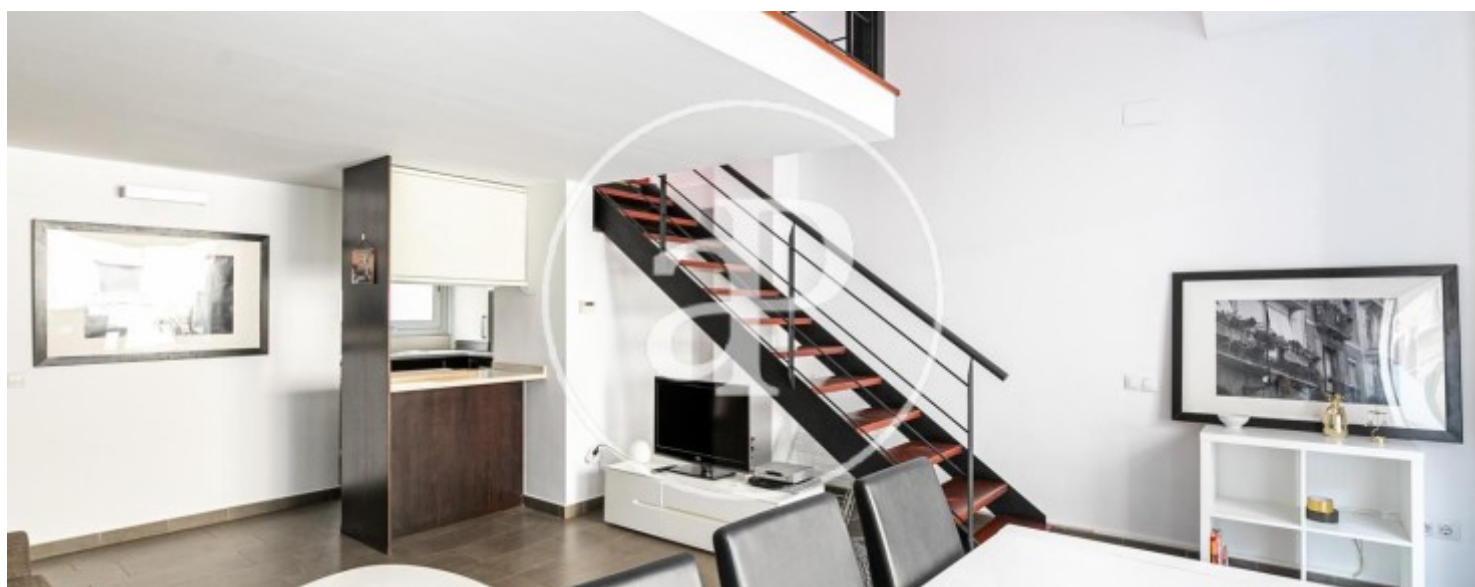

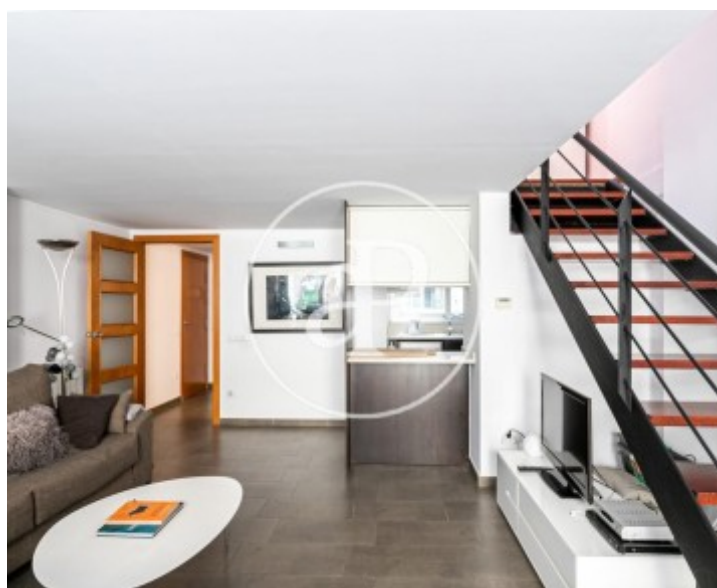

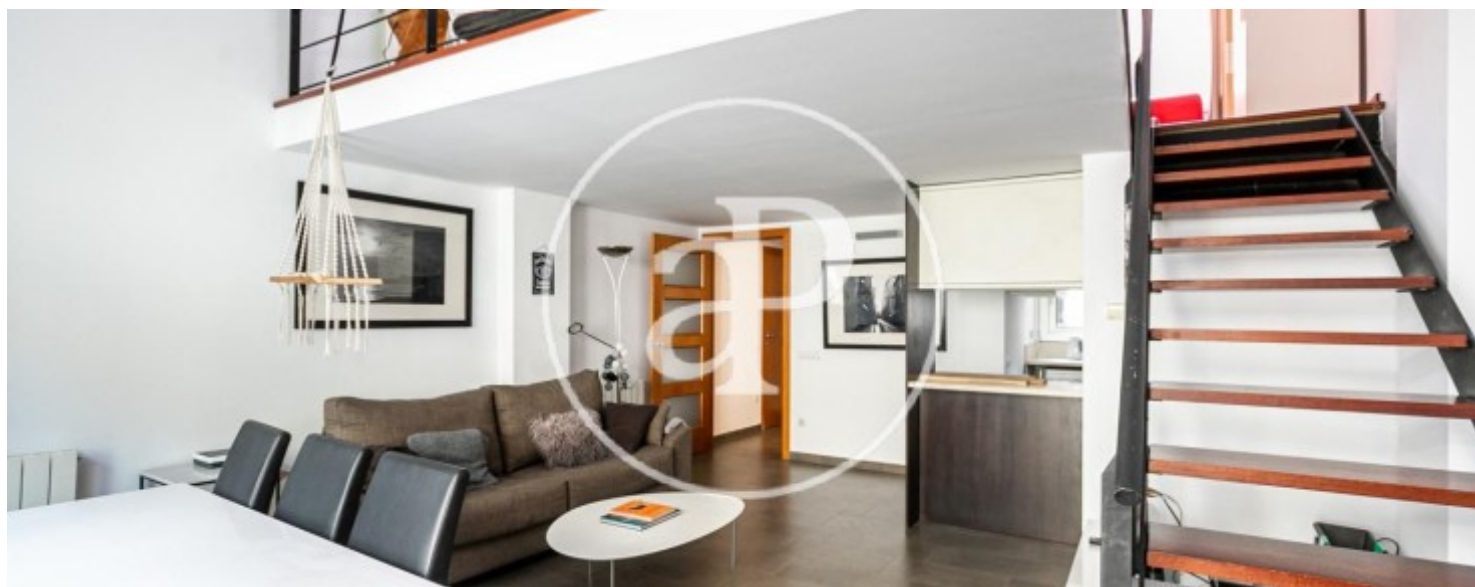

With a tourist license for those looking for profitability. Finca with few neighbors and with an excellent and exclusive community area with pool, very nice and quiet. The apartment has a lot of light, since it is all exterior. The entrance floor is where we enjoy the day area, with a complete bathroom with shower and two windows to a bright interior patio. The living room with access to a small balcony and the kitchen open to the living room, give this space a clear, quiet and comfortable air. A staircase with only wooden steps lead us to the night floor where there is the second bathroom with a bathtub, the bedroom area with built-in wardrobes and a gallery-type space for reading or work, which could easily be converted into a single room as well as the existing double. In the night area the floors are parquet and the whole house is equipped with gas radiators for heating and split for air conditioning. Undoubtedly a home to visit and check if it suits your expectations of living in the heart of the neighborhood, between the most important avenues of Barcelona, such as Avenida Diagonal, Passeig de...
