Detached villa located in Las Lomas, a residential area with 24-hour security and a very quiet street.

The most striking feature of this house is the wonderful interior forest within it. It creates a cool and pleasant climate around the 3,300 m² plot that surrounds the entire house. From the north side, you can enjoy magnificent views of the Sierra de Madrid. From the south, there are views of the garden surrounding the entire house, the swimming pool and the grove of trees that surrounds the entire plot. To the east and west, there are no neighbouring houses, thus creating absolute privacy. All you can see is the impeccable landscaping of the garden itself. As for the layout of the house, you enter via a path from the outside that invites you in. On the ground floor, there is a hallway that leads to a large living room with a central English courtyard, the heart of the house. It provides spectacular lighting to every room in the house, leaving no corner without light. It is a circular living room, allowing you to enjoy every panoramic view of the garden. It also has two facing fireplaces, creating a warm and family atmosphere. The large kitchen has direct access to the garden and spectacular views to enjoy while cooking. There is also a porch, as...
