This magnificent finca of approx.

19.000sqm of land is located in the south of the island, close to the village of Campos and on the way to the beaches of es Trenc, ses Covetes and sa Ràpita. It consists of two registered and cadastral units in which there are several old buildings to renovate, among them two mallorquin stone houses, mill tower with old well of sínia, safareig and agricultural warehouses with a constructed area of 591sqm of which 508sqm are for housing, the rest for agricultural use. Electricity supply at street level and mains water in the property. Campos is one of the closest villages to the beaches of Sa Ràpita and es trenc. This area has a great agricultural tradition, which still persists and preserves much of the charm of yesteryear, making it an excellent option if you wish to experience the authentic rural Mallorca. Don't miss the opportunity to live in original Mallorcan houses just a few minutes away from the best unspoilt beaches on the island and to cycle along beautiful and quiet country lanes or secondary roads that invite you to discover and explore them. Can you imagine living here, we are waiting for your call!
