This exterior-facing flat with 122 m² built and 110 m² of living space is located in the very centre of Cerdanyola del Vallès, in a 2004 building with a lift.

Facing south and west, it receives natural light for much of the day, is well kept and is ready to move into. A spacious entrance hall with built-in wardrobes leads to the living-dining room, which opens onto the terrace, and to a separate, exterior-facing kitchen with dining area, spacious, with plenty of cupboards and worktops and room for an everyday table. The night area retains its privacy with three exterior bedrooms: the main bedroom works as a suite, with a private bathroom with shower and double washbasin, while the second and third bedrooms share a full bathroom with bathtub. Wooden floors add warmth, and comfort is ensured all year round with ducted heating and electric radiators, as well as ducted air conditioning. Living here means having all services nearby and handling everyday life on foot, with the main shopping streets and the market just steps away. It is a flat designed for families who need space, storage and versatile rooms, with a terrace for breakfast in the sun. The home is offered at €460,000 and is sold together with two parking spaces in the...
