Living the Mediterranean, Right on the Seafront

In a privileged setting in El Masnou, overlooking the Mediterranean, an exclusive new-build development has been created for those seeking much more than a home: a new way of living by the sea. Its contemporary architecture, characterised by elegant, serene lines, blends seamlessly into a carefully landscaped setting where light, scenery and the Mediterranean take centre stage. An exceptional location that offers the tranquillity and quality of life of the Maresme without compromising on excellent connections to Barcelona. The homes have been designed to maximise space, natural light and the connection between indoor and outdoor living. Large windows open the interiors onto the surrounding landscape, while generous terraces extend the living areas outdoors and invite residents to enjoy the Mediterranean light throughout much of the day. The interiors combine functionality, carefully considered proportions and high-quality materials, with the sea serving as a defining feature of the development. The development offers a choice of 2- and 3-bedroom homes, ranging from residences with spacious terraces to spectacular penthouses with panoramic terraces and ground-floor homes with [...]
