This 71m² apartment with 3 bedrooms has undergone a full renovation in the heart of Esplugues.

Spacious, sunlit living room, kitchen with access to a laundry area. Two single bedrooms with space for a desk and one large master bedroom. We particularly love the dining-living room because it offers beautiful, open views of a green area, complemented by a balcony where you can place a small table and two chairs. The renovation was carried out to optimize space, using high-quality, stylish materials designed to ensure you enjoy your home without compromising on anything. The building features a large entrance area where an elevator will be installed according to the latest regulations. We love this apartment for its location, as the area offers all services, including the municipal health center nearby, supermarkets, local shops, public transport, and close access to tram and bus stops. Esplugues de Llobregat is one of the towns with the highest quality of life in Catalonia. It boasts a high-quality educational offer, hosting prestigious international schools such as the German School, American School, or institutions like La Miranda and Highland School. It also has countless parks and green spaces. Collserola Park features numerous entrances and...
