We present a unique house in the Esplugues de Llobregat area, located on the upper part, which explains its truly spectacular views.

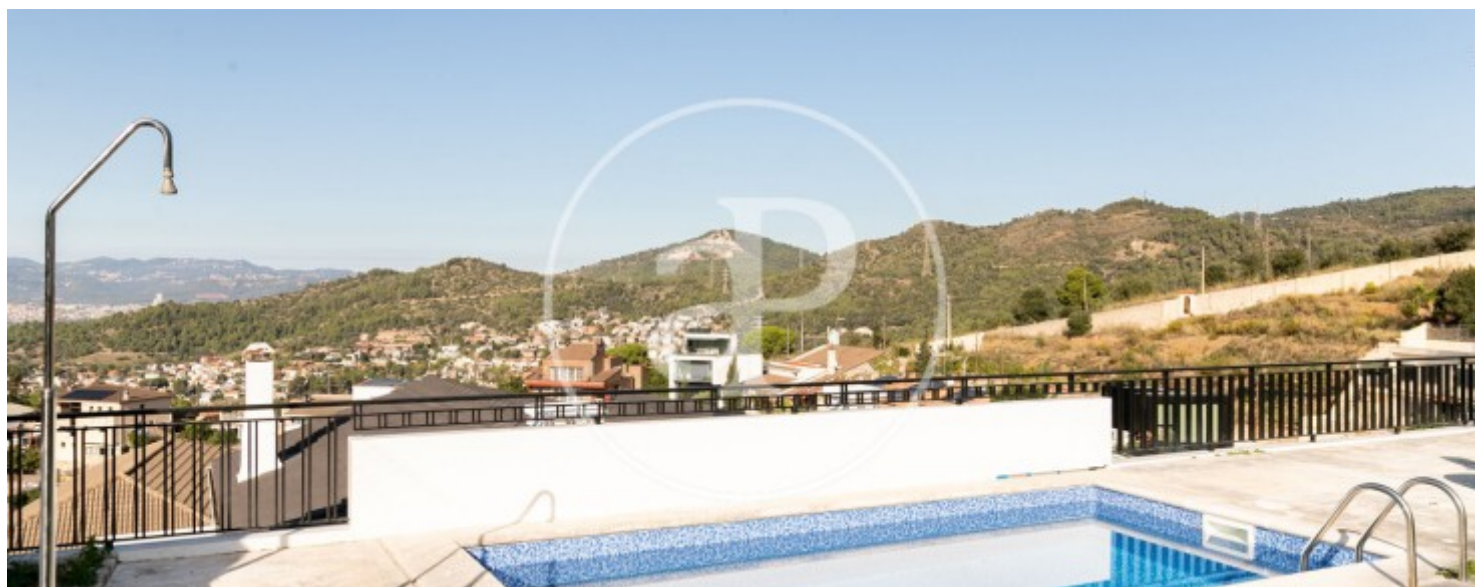

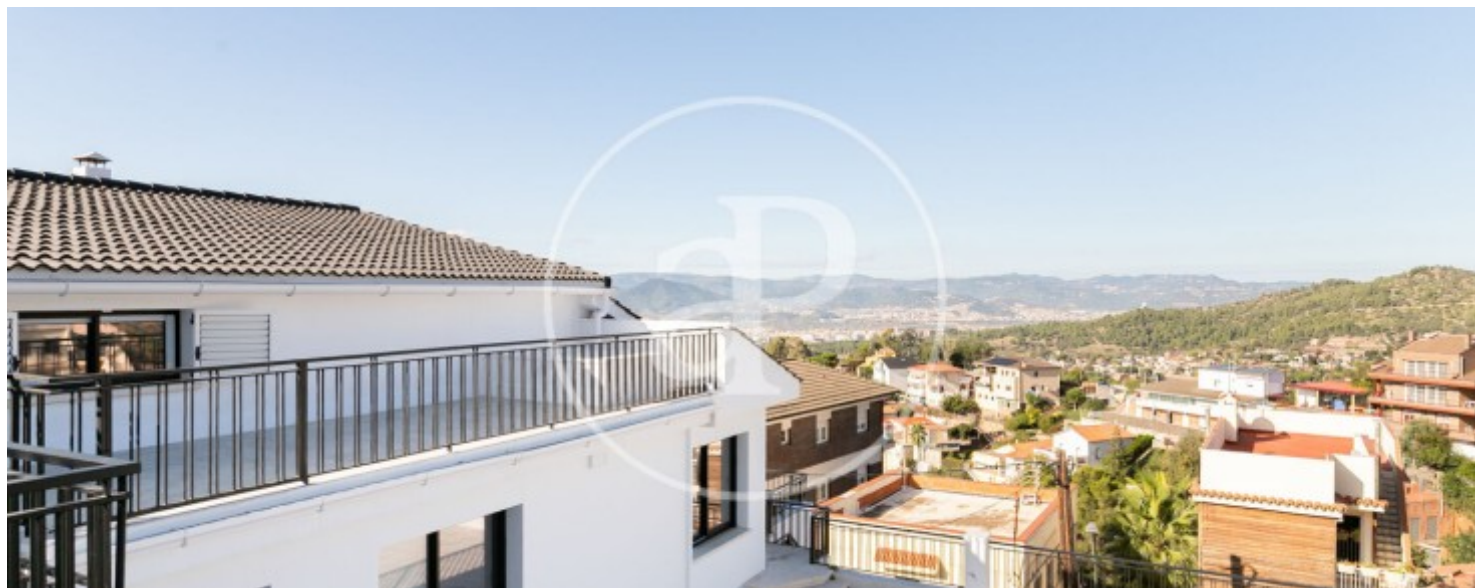

The house has been recently fully renovated with top-quality finishes. The main highlights of this home are its stunning views, the natural light that fills every room, and the peaceful atmosphere throughout. The property is divided into three floors, plus a garage with space for around five cars, as it is very large. On the main floor, there is a fully fitted kitchen with a classic English style, a spacious living-dining room with breathtaking views, two bedrooms each with their own bathrooms, and two guest toilets. This floor also provides access to several terraces and the pool. On the upper floor, with a separate entrance from the outside, there is a large luxury bedroom with a beautiful and spacious bathroom and two walk-in closets. This floor also includes a kitchen and access to the pool, making it suitable as a fully independent apartment if desired. The lower floor, accessed from the street, features several offices, a gym or multipurpose area, and a bathroom. This is a very unique designer home with abundant light, adaptable to different needs: from large families to smaller ones, even multiple families, or...
