House of 556 m2 built on a plot of 740 m2.

The house of rationalist construction is an allegory to the light, its south orientation, leads the architect to look for and take advantage of how to capture the maximum luminosity to the property. When we enter we already have the sensation of being in a real paradise, its open ceiling gives the space an unequalled feeling of spaciousness and freedom. A beautiful living-dining room, with windows to the garden, is the identity of the house. In the outdoor summer and winter dining area, pool area and relaxation area. The kitchen is on this floor and could be communicated in case you want an open kitchen, from the kitchen there is access to a covered outdoor area, ideal as a laundry area. On this same floor there is a room that could be a reading room or a bedroom, as it has an en-suite bathroom. Four bedrooms on this floor, one master suite, one suite and two double bedrooms. Upstairs there is a solarium area, terrace, with sea views. The house is connected on all floors with lift, which facilitates access or any of the rooms. The garage area is undoubtedly another of the strong points of this house, very spacious, for 6 cars, the room is fitted out with wardrobes, ideal for keeping everything tidy. On...
