The house that we present has all those elements that make us want a house.

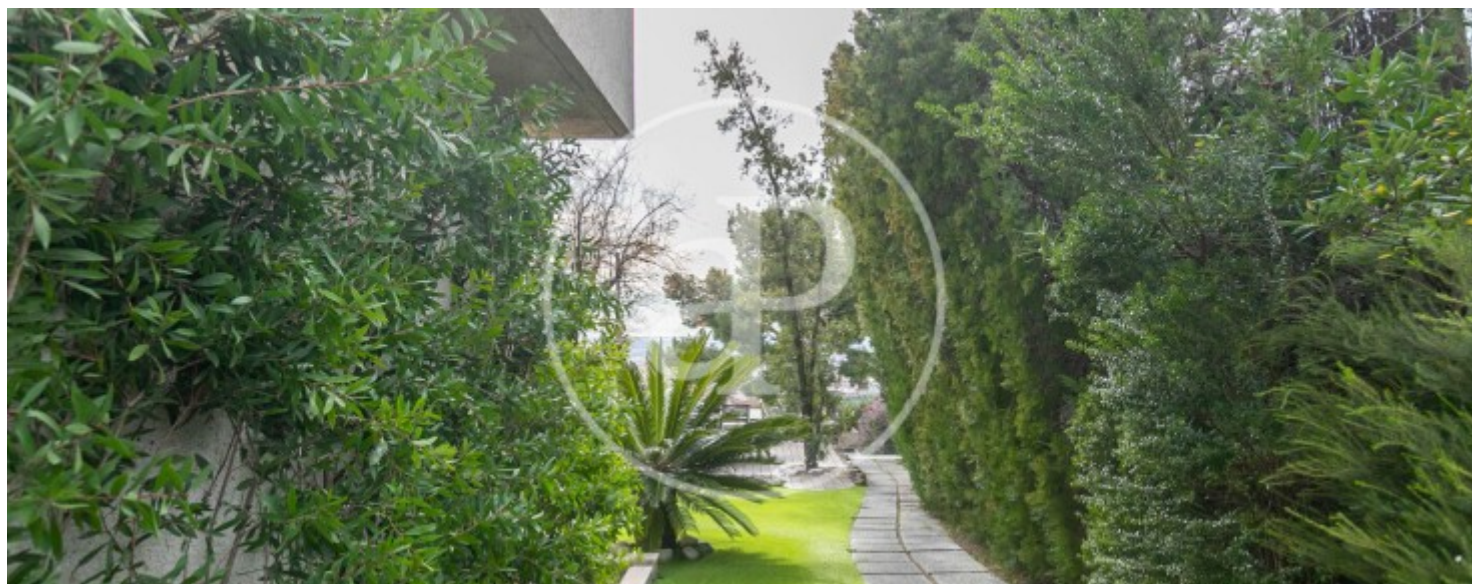

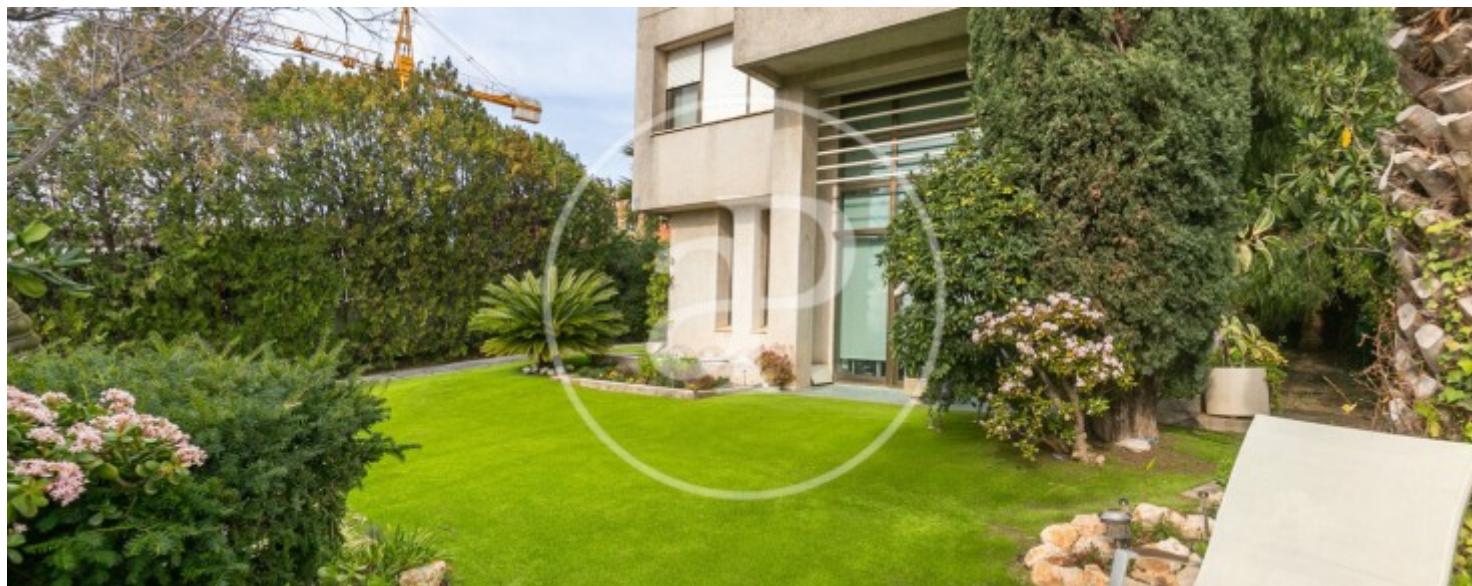

Light, views, excellent orientation, privacy. The house is built on a plot with a beautiful garden, with the possibility of building a pool. The whole house is exterior and the materials that have been used in its construction and in the interior are of first quality. The property is distributed in several floors, which provides privacy to each of them and on the other hand gives us the spectacular views, all on a flat plot. From the garage located on the first level we access a nice studio or multipurpose room, ideal for any recreational activity, workshop etc.. It has its own bathroom and storage area or cellar. On the next floor large living room with spectacular ceiling height and brightness, overlooking the garden, kitchen with access to a charming corner of terrace from where we can also access the garden of the house. It has a practical bedroom with bathroom and a toilet. In the night area, we find two large bedrooms and a large office with incredible views, a place to work or be inspired, designer bathroom with natural light. Finally, a large master suite with views and its own office or courtesy area, with a large bathroom. This house has been built to enjoy and to make...
