Semi-detached house for sale in Campolivar

Discover an exclusive development of new-build townhouses on Paseo de Campolivar, one of the most sought-after residential areas for those seeking tranquility, quality of life and excellent connections. Each home features its own private plot, spacious interiors and a contemporary design created to maximize comfort and natural light. There is also the option to add a private pool, creating the perfect outdoor space to relax and share moments with family. Located in a well-established setting, these homes allow you to enjoy nature without giving up any of the services you need. Campolivar stands out for its extensive green areas, its family-friendly atmosphere and its proximity to some of the best international schools, making it an ideal location for both local and international families. Its excellent connections to Valencia and the airport, together with the proximity to shops, sports facilities and services, offer the perfect balance between privacy, comfort and city life. Two outdoor parking spaces.
