aProperties presents this wonderful house located in the Conde de Orgaz Park, one of the most exclusive and demanded residential areas of Madrid.

This elegant, newly renovated detached house stands out for its spaciousness, privacy and a careful connection between architecture and surroundings. Its design has been designed to respect nature, enhancing the entry of natural light and the fluid relationship between indoor and outdoor spaces. Surrounded by green areas, prestigious international schools and excellent connections to the airport and the city center, it is a property designed for those seeking quality of life in a quiet and safe environment. The house is distributed in a bright social area with lounge of generous dimensions, fireplace and west orientation, which opens directly to the garden and private pool. Open spaces and large glazed surfaces promote a constant sense of spaciousness and well-being. The kitchen, equipped with Bosch appliances, includes a separate pantry and wine cellar. The rest area has four en-suite bedrooms, including a master suite with dressing room, designer bathroom and private terrace facing east. It also has an office or TV room and a service room. The house incorporates aerothermia, radiant and refreshing flooring,...
