aProperties presents Casa Mora, a unique home in the historic centre of Jérica (Castellón).

Casa Mora is a distinctive property located on Calle San Roque, in the heart of Jérica's historic centre, one of the towns with the greatest heritage and natural appeal in the Alto Palancia region. With an approximate surface area of 120 m², the property retains the character and traditional architecture of historic village homes, combining original features such as high ceilings, wooden beams and crossbeams, varying ceiling heights and a layout spread across several floors, giving each space its own personality and character. The property comprises two bedrooms, two bathrooms, a fully equipped kitchen, a living area and several spaces designed for relaxation, as well as an attractive jacuzzi area, conceived to provide a private and relaxing atmosphere. For many years, Casa Mora operated as a rural tourist accommodation, with an established track record and a presence on several specialised platforms. This previous experience provides added value for those considering the possibility of resuming its tourist use, subject in all cases to obtaining the authorisations, licences or responsible declarations required under current...
