Spectacular detached house located in one of the most exclusive residential enclaves of northwest Madrid, this spectacular author villa in Molino de la Hoz represents a unique combination of architecture, privacy and lifestyle. Surrounded by nature and within a private urbanization with 24-hour security, the property offers a quiet and sophisticated environment just minutes from the golf course and only 20 km from the center of Madrid. A perfect balance between remoteness and proximity to the city, with excellent connections, international schools and first-class services. Designed by the architects Antonio Romero Fernández and Jaime de Inclán Rebollo for a prominent figure in the public sphere, the housing has been completely renovated in 2022, incorporating current solutions in efficiency, comfort and design, resulting in a residence ready to enjoy from the very first moment. Indoor spaces The house is distributed on several levels, designed to offer spaciousness, functionality and differentiated experiences. On the main floor, natural light and volumes take center stage. The large living room, with a cinema area and fireplace, rises under an impressive 9-meter-high Canadian pine roof, creating a truly unique space. The modern, fully equipped kitchen incorporates central island, teppanyaki and a carefully designed natural light entrance. On this floor there are three bedrooms...
