Ideal stately home in a classic building, with a protected facade and well-kept common areas, located in one of the most significant areas of Almagro.

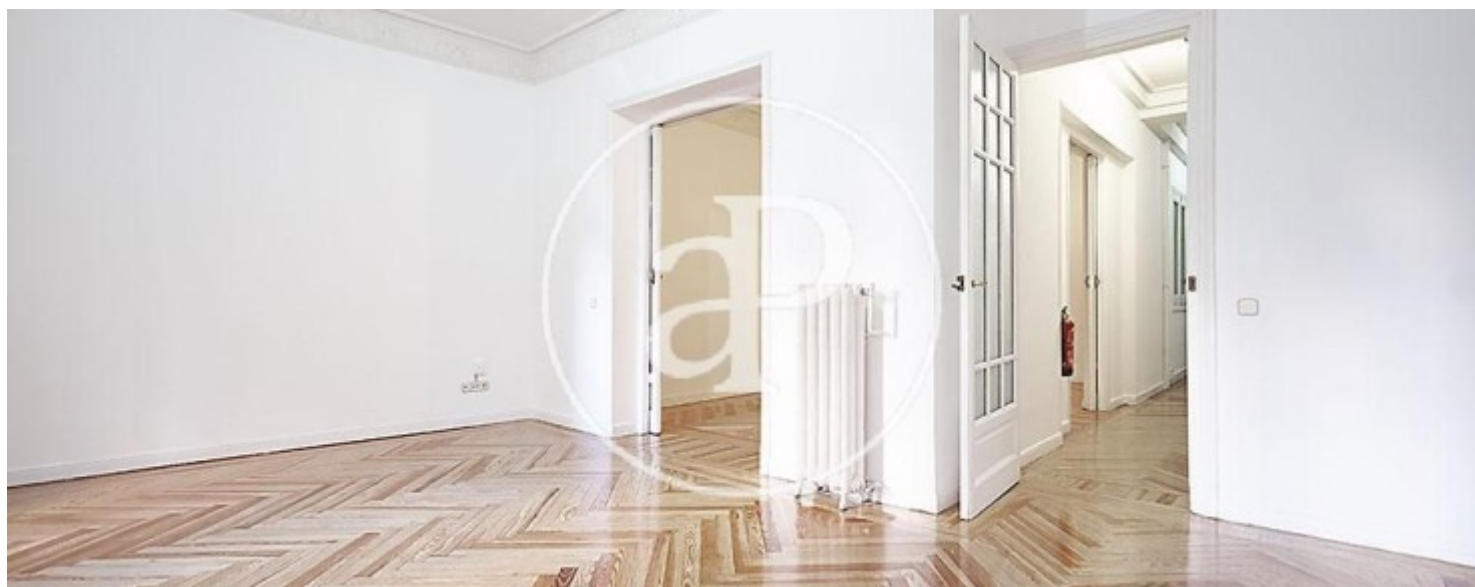

The apartment is located in a mezzanine facing west that stands out for its luminosity, due to the large windows it has and the stately elegance of its rooms. The house is laid out in a large entrance hall that gives way to a magnificent and bright living room, with two large balconies overlooking the street. It has a large kitchen with independent service door. The rest area currently has four bedrooms and a total of two bathrooms. The apartment has high ceilings with original moldings and well-preserved melis pine floors. The property has double use of office and housing and has been used as an office before. The building where it is located has central heating and concierge service.
