aProperties presents this magnificent 320 m² residence, situated on an elegant chamfered corner (chaflán) between Calle Sagasta and Calle Fernando de Rojas, in one of the most iconic locations in Chamberí. It is a large-scale property combining spaciousness, classic architecture, and a high-end comprehensive renovation, conceived to offer maximum comfort right in the heart of Madrid. One of its major highlights is its extraordinary connection to the outdoors. The residence features twelve facade openings—nine large French balcony windows and three bay windows (miradores)—that follow the building's architecture and allow for a magnificent influx of natural light. Its south and east orientations foster a bright, warm atmosphere throughout the day. The social area is organized around a spacious daytime living space where the living room, dining area, and kitchen integrate naturally. Its generous surface area allows for the creation of distinct zones for gathering, relaxing, and entertaining guests, while always maintaining a visual connection between the different rooms. High ceilings and wood flooring bring continuity, elegance, and warmth to the entire home. The private area offers four bedrooms and four bathrooms, with a layout specifically designed to combine comfort, independence, and privacy. Three spacious double bedrooms feature en-suite bathrooms, creating versatile and comfortable...
