A private enclave in the heart of Almagro.

An absolutely unique property, located on the top floor of a highly representative classic building, where architecture and potential come together to create an exceptional residence that can be fully customized, as it is currently in need of renovation. An irreplaceable property, defined by the spaciousness of its volumes, the quality of its natural light, and extraordinary ceiling heights that allow for the creation of truly unique spaces. With nearly 500 m² in total and an elegant west-facing private terrace, the property benefits from three orientations, as it occupies the top floor of the building. It enjoys privacy, tranquility, and open views over distinguished stately buildings, in one of the most sought-after areas of Madrid. Its impressive ceiling height of around 5 meters makes it possible to develop a truly distinctive project, incorporating double-height spaces, large open-plan areas, and contemporary architecture on a classic foundation full of character. A bespoke renovation project is available, designed to meet the highest standards and create a unique residence, personalized in every detail. An exceptional opportunity that goes beyond the concept of a home: a one-of-a-kind asset in one of the most prestigious addresses...
