Exclusive renovated house in the street Espagoleto, located in the prestigious neighborhood of Almagro, in the district of Chamberí, one of the most elegant and sought after residential areas of Madrid. Located in a classic 1930 building with elevator and concierge service, this property combines the stately character of traditional architecture with carefully executed contemporary interior design. With a surface area of 71 m 2, the house has been integrally transformed to offer a functional and balanced distribution. The day area consists of a bright living room with fully equipped open kitchen, designed with ceiling furniture and finishes in dark tones that bring sophistication and contrast. It has two bedrooms and a full bathroom with large-format materials, backlit mirror and integrated indirect lighting, creating a warm and enveloping atmosphere. The property also has a pleasant private patio of 10 m 2, an exceptional added value in the center of Madrid, ideal as an outdoor space for rest or urban green area. Among its qualities are the oak finish floor, interior lacquered woodwork from floor to ceiling, architectural lighting system with built-in spotlights and LED strips, individual heating by boiler and air conditioning split with cold and heat pump. It is delivered fully furnished, ready to move in. Living in Almagro is enjoying a distinguished environment, surrounded...
