We present this magnificent newly refurbished property in Zurbano.

It is a first floor with mezzanine height of 259 m², according to the land registry, located in a beautiful stately property from 1958 with a large and representative entrance. It consists of a majestic living/dining room of large dimensions with two large windows facing west and through which a beautiful afternoon light enters. The kitchen is integrated with a large storage capacity, designer cupboards and top brand appliances with a fantastic large island with a seating area for breakfast, as well as a pantry room. The sleeping area is made up of four double bedrooms, two of them with full en-suite bathrooms and another two sharing another bathroom. All of them have large built-in wardrobes and the master bedroom has an excellent walk-in wardrobe. The service area is made up of another single bedroom, with a full bathroom and a laundry area complete with washing machine, dryer, sink and storage furniture. There is also a guest toilet for visitors. The house has access to a private patio of about 35 m². We would like to highlight the high quality refurbishment that has been carried out in this house with an interior design project that takes care of all the details,...
