New building for sale in Almagro (Madrid)

They are contemporary homes with open spaces, with a neutral and monochrome architecture, with natural finishes that transmit warmth and calm to their spaces. With two or three bedrooms and surfaces from 122sqm to 130sqm. The homes on the first four floors have been designed for clients who want to enjoy Madrid with a unique pied à terre both in terms of location and concept or for owners who need a luxury home with two bedrooms or as an investment, with great possibilities of profitability. The modern distribution confers a great amplitude making the possibilities of these units extend to different types of clients, allowing life in them to be not only comfortable and exclusive, but also elegant and collected.
