We present magnificent exterior housing, located in one of the most coveted enclaves of the Chamberí neighborhood, the Canal area that offers an exceptional cultural and green areas.

Housed in a 1965 building, this property is an example of quality of life. The 169 square meters built in three different orientations allow large and modern spaces, thought to the detail for maximum comfort. It is accessed by a hall that gives access to a magnificent living room distributed in two environments, with exit to a terrace overlooking the street Vallehermoso. Highlights the great luminosity of the house. The fully equipped kitchen with breakfast, wine bar and paneled appliances is adjacent to the living room but separated by elegant glass doors, and on the other side attached an interior terrace where the washing area has been housed. It has three double bedrooms, two of them with bathroom en suite and a third bathroom also serves for visitors. Two bedrooms share a terrace and the third is outside as well. Top quality materials, porcelain floors with oak wood effect, central heating and air conditioning by cold/heat A++ zone insulation. The building with a large portal, doorman, and elevator. It also has a storage room of five square...
