We offer this wonderful and cozy apartment totally outside in the Avenue of Valladolid.

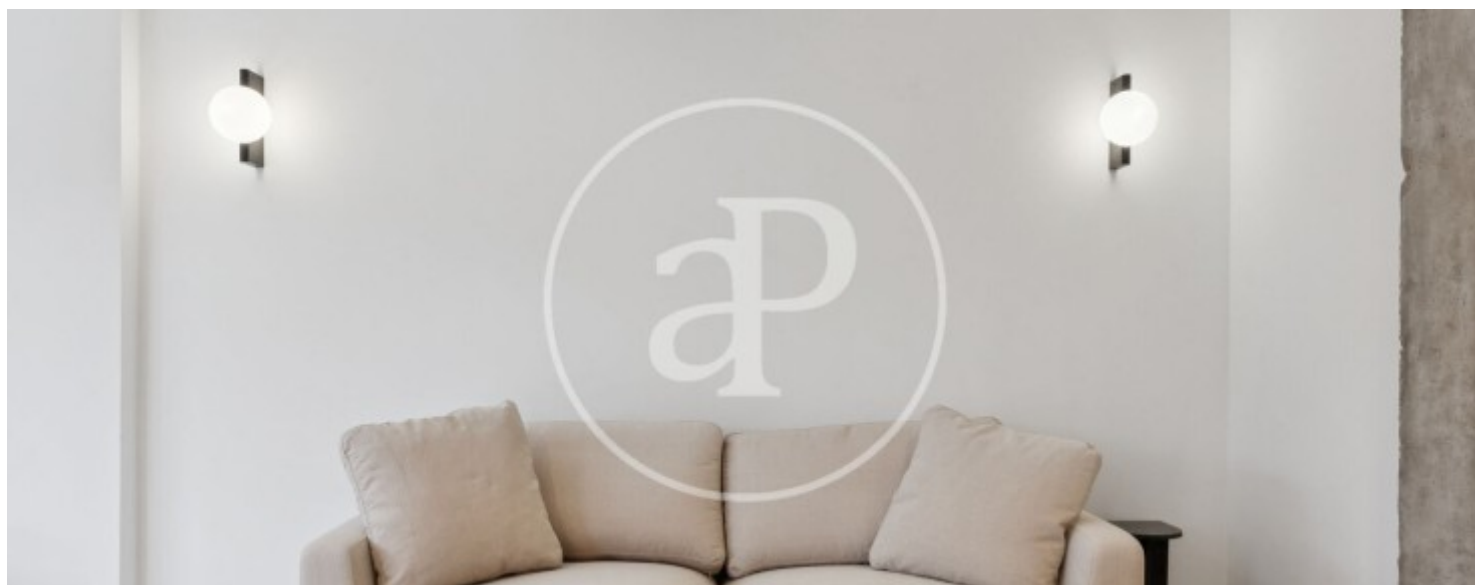

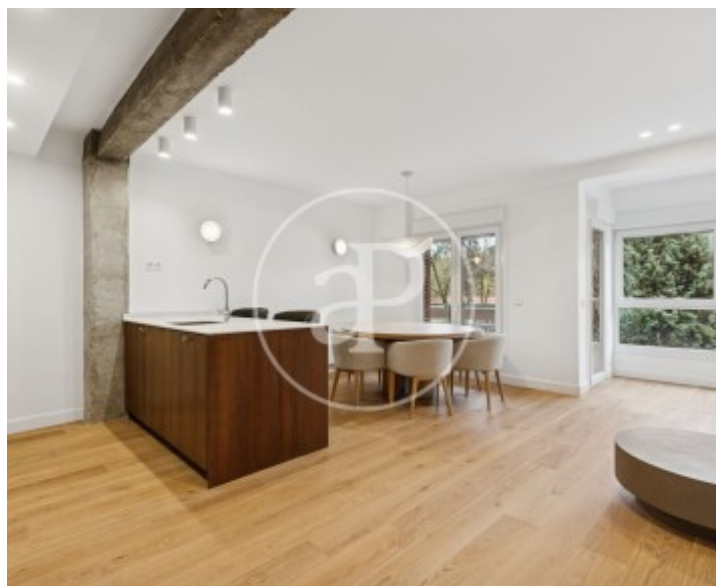

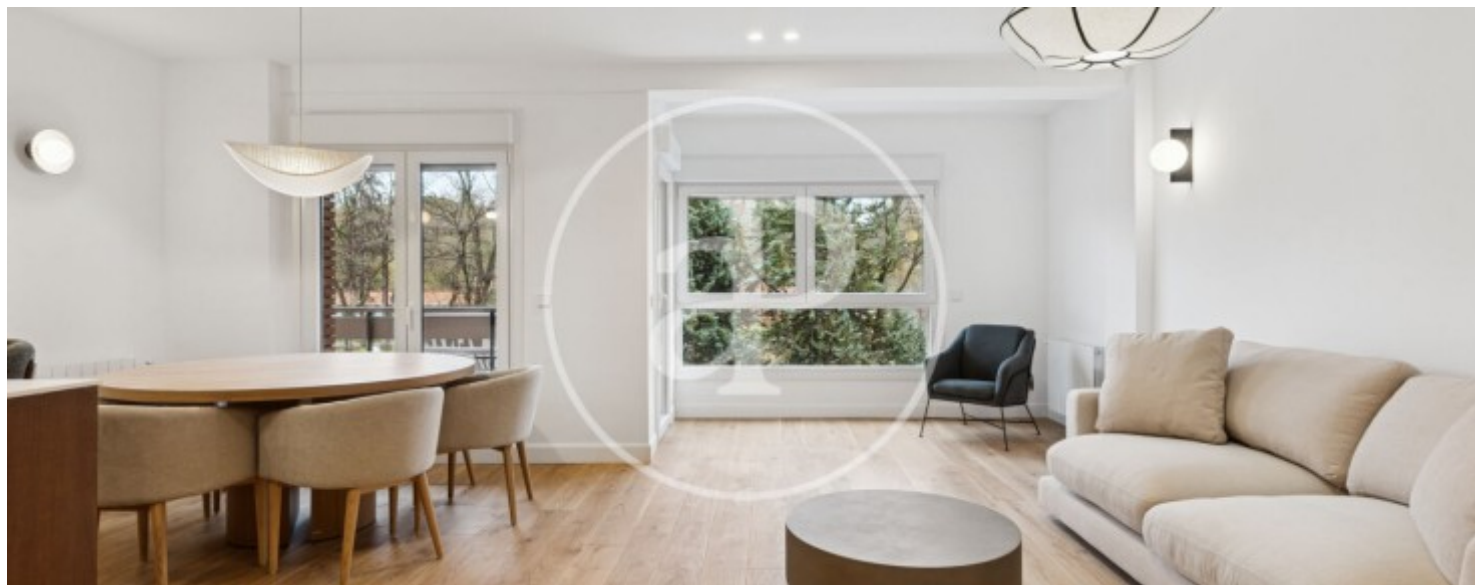

East/ West facing this floor has large windows that make it super bright and cheerful with magnificent views of the park of the bulb on one side, and the communal gardens on the other. It has three bedrooms and three bathrooms, all en suite and all exterior with fitted wardrobes in the bedrooms and throughout the hallway, so it has great storage capacity. The closets are all lined with wood and have drawers. The hallway is panelled with wood. It has a living room with integrated kitchen, with some oak furniture that make it very warm and equipped with high-end Bosch appliances. It has a dining area and another living area with access to a bright terrace and a large window. Close to the west park and the Manzanares this apartment has a privileged and tranquil location for walking, sports and recreation. Very well connected, with buses that take you directly to Moncloa and with access to the Madrid exit of the A Coruña road, French bridge and M 30. Undoubtedly one of the most projected areas of the city. Can you imagine living here?
