Located on Calle Marqués de Urquijo, in the heart of the Argüelles neighborhood, this 149 m² property occupies the fourth floor of a 1955 building, which includes an elevator. It is situated in one of the most well-established and best-connected residential areas in central Madrid, just a stone's throw from Parque del Oeste and the Temple of Debod. The renovation, designed by Arctempus, combines warm tones and fine woods with a layout tailored for everyday living. The living room, dining room, and a kitchen equipped with an island form the social area. The home also features three bedrooms and three full bathrooms—one of which is en-suite—as well as a separate laundry room. Central heating, ducted air conditioning, and a storage unit complete this residence, which comes furnished and move-in ready. Argüelles blends tree-lined streets and character-filled buildings with a vibrant local retail scene, centered around the streets of Princesa and Alberto Aguilera. Landmarks such as Parque del Oeste, the Rose Garden (La Rosaleda), the Cerralbo Museum, and the Conde Duque cultural center define the neighborhood’s character, while several metro lines provide quick access—just minutes away—to Gran Vía...
