This modern apartment of 165 m², located on the 31st floor, has an advanced home automation system that allows you to control the temperature, lighting, blinds and a silent alarm. Its height and orientation guarantee exceptional luminosity throughout the day, as well as panoramic views of the Madrid skyline. The distribution includes a spacious living room, a fully equipped kitchen, two bedrooms and two bathrooms, one of them en suite. Both bedrooms have fitted closets. It also has two terraces to enjoy the breathtaking views. The Torre de Madrid is the tallest residential building in the capital, with its imposing 142 meters high, offering unparalleled views of the city. Built in the 1950s and completely renovated in 2012, the central and upper part is dedicated exclusively to housing. The nine lower floors house a 5-star hotel. The building offers exceptional common areas and amenities, including 24-hour concierge and security, fitness center, event room and a terrace with 360-degree views. Can you imagine living here?
