In the heart of Argüelles, one of the most valued residential neighborhoods in Madrid, aProperties Real Estate presents this exclusive renovated new penthouse of 225 m² built, located on the sixth floor of a manor house from 1968 with newly renovated portal, two lifts and concierge service. Its completely unobstructed views of the Parque del Oeste and its magnificent terrace of almost 25 m² facing west make this house an especially attractive proposal for those seeking space, privacy and natural light in a privileged location. The house is distributed in a large living room with direct access to the terrace, a space designed to enjoy both daily life and social gatherings. The kitchen, integrated and easily self-contained, combines contemporary design, functionality and large storage capacity. The rest area has four double bedrooms and four full bathrooms, two of them en suite, as well as a practical laundry room. The comprehensive renovation has been executed with special attention to detail, incorporating ducted air conditioning, central heating and central hot water. Living in Argüelles means enjoying green areas, excellent communications and a fast connection to both the center of Madrid and the financial area. The proximity to the Parque del Oeste provides a quieter lifestyle without giving up all the city's services. As an added value, there is the possibility of...
