In one of Madrid’s most distinguished areas lies this spectacular 251 m² apartment, situated on the second floor of a prime corner building with three separate facades. Its exterior architecture is one of its standout highlights: featuring 11 street-facing openings—8 of which are balconies—it fosters an exceptional connection with its surroundings alongside an extraordinary feeling of light and space. The residence is currently undergoing a comprehensive renovation and will be delivered fully finished, turnkey. Its 3-meter-high ceilings enhance the elegance and proportions of every room, providing an exceptional foundation for a contemporary residential design that preserves the stately character of the historic building. Given its scale and distinct architectural features, this property is tailored for discerning buyers seeking an elegant, luminous, and character-rich home in central Madrid. Its location allows residents to experience the best of the city, with a wide array of dining, shopping, cultural landmarks, and everyday amenities just minutes away. A privileged address that combines central Madrid convenience with the refined, residential atmosphere typical of the city's finest quarters. An...
