The apartment is on the 13th floor of this recently renovated tower, which was the first skyscraper in the city and for many years the tallest building in Spain.

Decorated in a modern style, with a predominance of light tones and some studied touches of color, the apartment is elegant, cozy and has magnificent views from all rooms. The living-dining room is an open-plan space, with a comfortable sitting area where there is a large sofa, a coffee table and a dining table for four people. A large window in the room allows you to enjoy plenty of natural light, with a terrace in the living room where you can watch the magnificent sunsets. The modern kitchen is fully equipped with everything guests may need during their stay. Equipped with all the luxuries so that nothing is missing. In addition, guests can make use of the building's modern amenities including a fitness center, and 24-hour security. Can you imagine living here?
