We present this beautiful flat completely refurbished in Argüelles.

It is a ground floor, semi-basement exterior with beautiful west facing window, located in a beautiful classic estate of 1935 perfectly preserved with beautiful marble portal. It occupies a surface area of approximately 60 m² distributed in a spacious living/dining room with integrated kitchen, two bedrooms and two bathrooms. The main bedroom of ample dimensions has access to a private patio. The property has been completely refurbished, making the most of the space and taking care of every last detail. The result is a comfortable and functional home with a luxury design, highlighting the quality of the high quality materials, the direct and indirect lighting project and the careful interior design. The heating and air conditioning are ducted in all the rooms and the hot water is central. It is just a stone's throw from the Princesa shopping area, Pintor Rosales and Parque del Oeste, perfectly communicated by public transport and its proximity to the centre of the capital make it an attractive first family home as well as a profitable one. Can you imagine living here?
