Property situated on a second floor located on Calle Víctor de la Serna, in the Hispanoamérica neighborhood within the Chamartín district, Madrid.

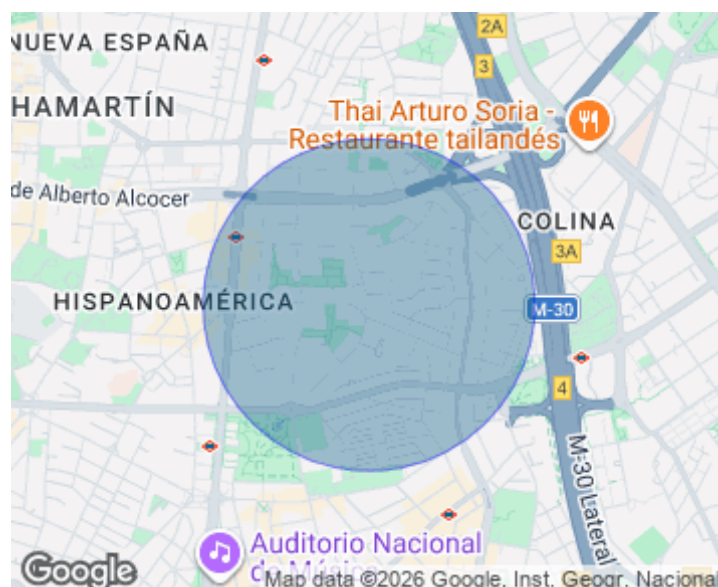

The residence features a built area of 110 square meters with an architectural layout designed to prioritize functionality and natural daylight across all rooms. The interior layout comprises four bedrooms—all of them exterior-facing, ensuring constant natural light and efficient cross-ventilation—two full bathrooms (one en suite), and a generously sized independent kitchen. The building's structural design also allows for easy reconfiguration of the interior non-load-bearing walls should a modern update of the finishes or a contemporary layout redesign be desired. The property is set in a building equipped with an elevator, meeting the accessibility standards required for residential properties of this caliber, along with a concierge service. The property's condition benefits from its exterior-facing position, which not only maximizes light intake but also enhances the overall perception of spaciousness. Situated in a strategic Madrid enclave renowned for its high residential appeal and proximity to major landmarks such as Parque de Berlín and the Santiago Bernabéu...
