On Calle Chile, right in the heart of Hispanoamérica (Chamartín district), this renovated 89 m² built apartment is for sale: a third floor overlooking a generous interior block courtyard (patio de manzana), offering the light and quiet only found in homes set back from the street. It is located in a well-kept building with a concierge, the kind of quality you notice the moment you step into the lobby. The renovation, completed by its owner just a few years ago, is immediately felt upon arrival. An entrance hall leads into a spacious and luminous living room, with ample room for a seating area, a library corner, and even a piano. The separate, fully equipped kitchen showcases distinctive checkered flooring full of character. Surrounding this are three bedrooms—the master suite exceptionally comfortable—and two bathrooms, featuring refined details like botanical wallpaper and hardwood flooring that bring warmth to the entire home. Living in Hispanoamérica means settling into one of Madrid's most peaceful and desirable neighborhoods. Just steps from Príncipe de Vergara and Concha Espina, with excellent schools, local neighborhood shops, green spaces, and multiple metro stops, everyday needs are effortless without sacrificing tranquility. It is an ideal home for a family seeking space, quiet, and a prime location to put down roots, fully move-in...
