Right on María de Molina Street, one of Madrid's most prestigious addresses, you will find this exclusive apartment of 105 m² according to the Cadastre, located on the fourth exterior floor of an elegant classic building. Fully renovated and in perfect condition, it combines the charm of traditional architecture with a contemporary design, offering a bright, elegant home that is ready to move into. An ideal option for those seeking quality of life in one of the capital's most sought-after areas. The property stands out for its spacious and well-proportioned rooms, where natural light fills every space thanks to its high floor and exterior position. The renovation has taken care of every detail to create a functional and sophisticated home, with a layout designed to enjoy daily life, high-quality finishes, and a warm atmosphere that balances design, comfort, and personality. Living on María de Molina means living in an established neighborhood with excellent transport links, exclusive shops, restaurants, prestigious schools, and all the necessary services just a few minutes away. Its location allows you to enjoy an urban lifestyle without giving up tranquility, making it an excellent choice both as a primary residence and as a property investment. If you are looking for a luxury renovated apartment in a classic building—spacious, exterior, and in one of the...
