This renovated apartment in Castellana, Madrid, occupies an upper third floor along the interior staircase of an elegant classic 1910 building featuring concierge service, a stately entrance lobby, and a facade adorned with French balconies. Its 109 m² cadastre surface offers an exceptionally efficient layout, designed for those seeking a designer home in an established location steeped in the architectural character of central Madrid. The nearly square floor plan, free of hallways, organizes the spaces with effortless flow. The east-facing living room enjoys two French balconies and pleasant morning light, alongside preserved high ceilings and original moldings. The designer semi-open kitchen is fully equipped and features paneled, integrated appliances throughout. The sleeping quarters comprise three double bedrooms: the primary suite, also facing east with a French balcony, includes a walk-in closet and a full en-suite bathroom; the remaining two share two full bathrooms, one of which is en suite. Living in Castellana pairs the tranquility and distinction of one of Madrid's most prestigious enclaves with the convenience of having an extensive array of services, gastronomy, boutiques, and transport links just minutes away. A home for those who value classic architecture, natural light, and a contemporary renovation executed down to the finest detail. This property is available for...
