In the prestigious district of Castellana, within the Barrio de Salamanca, is this elegant newly renovated 193 m² house, designed to enjoy a contemporary lifestyle in one of the most sought-after areas of Madrid. Exterior, bright and with an especially functional distribution, the property combines spaciousness, design and connection to the outside thanks to its terraces and large floor-to-ceiling windows. An ideal home for those seeking comfort, location and a careful renovation in the heart of the capital. The social area revolves around a spacious living-dining room with integrated kitchen, creating an open and sophisticated space that connects naturally to the large main terrace. The recovery of the original terrace of the building allows an exceptional light entry and a total visual continuity between interior and exterior through an integral opening system. The house has four bedrooms en suite, highlighting the master bedroom with direct access to terrace and views of Diego de León street. Also, it has a courtesy toilet, separate laundry in the service area and a spacious storage room. Castellana maintains an elegant and residential atmosphere, surrounded by classic buildings, international boutiques, renowned restaurants and some of the most exclusive streets in Madrid, such as Serrano, Ortega y Gasset or Lagasca. Its excellent connectivity and cultural offer make this...
