Stately exterior apartment with a terrace on Lagasca street, Castellana area.

Located on the emblematic Lagasca street, right in the Golden Mile of the Salamanca neighborhood, this exclusive, fully renovated apartment offers 230 m² designed to enjoy one of the most sought-after areas of Madrid. Situated between Ortega y Gasset and Don Ramón de la Cruz streets, it combines a privileged location with a pleasant terrace, excellent views of a mansion, and magnificent sun exposure that provides natural light throughout most of the day. It is a home designed for those looking for spaciousness, privacy, and an exceptional location in the heart of the district. The layout has been conceived to offer comfort and functionality. The spacious living-dining room becomes the center of the home, while the independent, fully equipped kitchen incorporates an elegant central island, laundry room, service entrance, and a service elevator. It features three en-suite bedrooms, with the master suite standing out for its exterior-facing character, ample closets, and a bathroom with a double sink. Additionally, it has a cozy family living room and a guest toilet. The finishes include large-format oak flooring, hot/cold climate control via independent...
