Professional space located in a modern 1985 building with an on-site parking space, concierge service, an attractive entrance lobby, and well-maintained communal areas, in the Salamanca district within the Castellana area—one of Madrid's most representative and sought-after locations. Currently undergoing renovation, the space will be delivered fully fitted out and ready for use, featuring a carefully planned design that combines the structural solidity of the building with a contemporary layout that adapts seamlessly to various working styles. The office is organized around a spacious, open-plan main area, complemented by independent private offices, a kitchenette/break room, and a rack/server room, integrating efficiency into every space.
