We present this completely renovated, brand-new property in a classic building located on the prestigious General Oraá street, right in the heart of the Salamanca District.

A privileged location, just a few meters from Diego de León, María de Molina, and Paseo de la Castellana, which combines residential tranquility with excellent connections and a wide range of services, shops, supermarkets, dining, and leisure options. An exceptional opportunity both for those looking for a home ready to move into and for those wishing to make a high-yield investment in one of Madrid's most sought-after addresses. The apartment is currently undergoing a comprehensive renovation, featuring a contemporary and functional design. Its layout will maximize every square meter, offering a cozy living-dining room with a fully equipped integrated kitchen, a spacious double bedroom, and a modern-design bathroom. Each room has been conceived to provide comfort, brightness, and a practical lifestyle without compromising on quality. Located in a classic building with a concierge service seven days a week, the home features heating and air conditioning, ensuring maximum comfort throughout the entire year. The building preserves the charm of the traditional...
