Exclusive luxury house for sale in the emblematic street Velázquez, in the heart of Castellana district of Salamanca, one of the most prestigious and sought after areas of Madrid.

Located on the second floor of an elegant stately building from the mid-twentieth century, the property stands out for its spaciousness, its careful distribution and the excellence of its qualities. The building has a concierge service, several lifts and representative common areas. The house is organized in two distinct wings, one with direct views of Calle Velázquez and another oriented to quiet interior patios, both with independent accesses from the common areas. A magnificent entrance hall with complimentary toilet gives way to a spacious and bright living room, connected to a fully equipped main kitchen, with the option of making the space independent. It has five double bedrooms, four of them with bathroom en suite and three with dressing room, plus a single bedroom also with private bathroom. The property is completed with a second living room with kitchen, office area and auxiliary spaces that provide great versatility, ideal for both family life and service or guests. The materials and finishes are of first level: oak floors in point Hungary,...
