In the Castellana neighborhood within the Salamanca district, this 58 m² apartment (according to the cadastre), situated in a 2005 building, has been completely renovated by an architecture studio.

The renovation optimizes every square meter to deliver a functional two-bedroom, two-full-bathroom home, perfectly designed for comfortable daily living and ready for immediate move-in. Entry is through a reception hall that smoothly distributes the floor plan. The living room shares an open space with the kitchen-dining area. Standout design features include walnut wood paneling, custom built-in shelving with integrated lighting, and an independent coffee bar nook.

The kitchen comes fully equipped with smooth sand-toned cabinetry, marble-veined splashbacks, and column-integrated ovens. Indirect lighting in ceilings, baseboards, and cabinetry adds warmth throughout the home. The primary bedroom features built-in wardrobes and an en-suite bathroom with a walk-in shower. The second bedroom includes its own built-in wardrobe and a feature wall with designer wallpaper that gives it distinct personality. The second bathroom, located adjacent to the hallway, also doubles as a guest powder room. Both bathrooms feature stone countertops, vessel sinks, backlit...
