The apartment comprises 58m², of which 51m² are usable, distributed into a living-dining room, separate kitchen, one bedroom, and a bathroom.

From the entrance, you enter the bright living-dining room with windows overlooking a spacious interior patio offering excellent views of Madrid, thanks to its location on the sixth floor, the top floor of the building. To the left is the separate kitchen, equipped with a refrigerator, oven, and washing machine. Finally, there is the bedroom with a double bed and an en-suite bathroom with a shower. The apartment features parquet flooring, split-system air conditioning in all rooms, and individual natural gas heating.

The building has a concierge and an elevator. Located in the Salamanca district on Calle Padilla, just a few meters from Calle Serrano, it is very well connected by public transport and has a wide variety of shops nearby. Can you imagine living here?
