Located in one of the most prestigious enclaves of the Barrio de Justicia neighborhood, this property is housed in a classic building dating back to 1902, declared a historical heritage site of the city and completely renovated in 2016. The renovation faithfully preserved its original features—timber-framed walls, melis pine staircase, and handcrafted ironwork—combining them with top-quality contemporary fixtures and finishes. The building has two interior courtyards with elegant vertical gardens, visible from all the apartments, which provide light and a unique natural atmosphere. The apartment offers a modern and functional design: Two en-suite bedrooms, both with their own bathroom and optimal layout. Guest bathroom. High-end, fully equipped kitchen open to the living room, creating a spacious, fluid, and very pleasant space to enjoy and entertain guests. Rooms with plenty of natural light, generous heights, and a feeling of spaciousness that further enhances the elegance of the whole. An exclusive property that combines the historic charm of an iconic building with contemporary comfort and aesthetics, in one of the most desirable locations in Madrid. The Barrio de Justicia is one of the most sought-after and dynamic areas in the center of Madrid. Located between Chueca, Salesas, and Recoletos, it has established itself as a vibrant enclave where culture, gastronomy,...
