Third floor with elevator in a classic building in the Justicia neighborhood, completely renovated and delivered furnished.

It features three bedrooms and three bathrooms right in the center of Madrid, a short walk from Recoletos, Col??n, and Salesas. The Residence The living room faces the street through wrought-iron balconies, featuring high ceilings and wall moldings that recall the building's origins. The renovation adds recessed ceiling lighting, air conditioning, and individual heating. The living room, dining area, and kitchen are connected, yet each has its own defined space. A dark-framed glass partition separates the kitchen without taking away light from the overall space. The kitchen is a space designed both for cooking and for gathering. It features an island with a breakfast bar, natural wood cabinetry, a dark marble-effect countertop and backsplash with LED lighting, and integrated appliances. Next to it, the dining area has room for a table seating six guests. The three bedrooms are located in the quiet part of the home, away from the street. They feature wallpaper on the headboard wall, wall sconces, and wardrobes. With three full bathrooms, the residence is...
