Aproperties Real Estate offers for sale this exclusive house located in a historic building with theatrical past, Calle Corredera Baja de San Pablo. Located in an emblematic building with history in the heart of Malasaña, this unique property is located in what was the former National Hall and later the Cervantes Cinema. The building retains in its large portal the original period ornaments, silent witnesses of the cultural splendor of Madrid of the early twentieth century. The house has been completely renovated with high quality materials and finishes, perfectly combining the character of the historic property with a contemporary interior design, elegant and functional. Highlight its high ceilings of 2.80 m, which enhance the feeling of spaciousness and luminosity in all spaces. Distribution and spaces. The layout has been carefully designed to offer comfort and style in every room: We receive an entrance hall with built-in wardrobe from floor to ceiling, ideal as gabanero or discreet storage space. Linear kitchen with two walls, organized in two environments: An open and social area, perfect for cooking and sharing. Another laundry area, type laundry fully integrated, with custom cabinets that house washing machine, dryer and additional space. The heart of the house is a spacious and bright living room, with two windows to the street, which flood the space with natural...
